unique views per month

Bristol Media was created in 2005 to support, develop and grow an exciting and competitive creative, media and tech community in the city. It is now one of the biggest creative networks in the UK.

We are an industry led organisation, whose primary role is to facilitate collaboration and growth within our region, delivering projects, events and opportunities for businesses in the creative sector. We help develop skills, jobs and business growth for 600 paying members who work in digital, marketing, VR, games, design, animation, PR, social, publishing, film and TV.

Our purpose is to put Bristol on the map as a centre of creativity and innovation so that we inspire talented people to work here, attract customers and drive growth.
